

NEW

FINANCIAL EDUCATION BOOT CAMP

Approved for six recertification credit hours
from HRCI.

Great for Pre-Cons!

Are you looking for a free training program approved for six recertification hours that can help your members bring quality financial education to their workplaces?

The Pennsylvania Office of Financial Education has created a new Financial Education “Boot Camp” to help HR professionals build skills to recognize, design and implement effective financial education programs for employees in the workplace.

The Financial Education Boot Camp covers:

- Part I - Making the Case for Financial Education in the Workplace
- Part II - Essential Fundamentals (Basic Money Concepts)
- Part III - Designing a Workplace Program (Objectives, Lesson Plans, Evaluation)
- Part IV - Effective Communication with Adult Learners
- Part V - How to Find Resources and Providers for Your Program

This program is available at no charge, but a minimum of 15 participants is required. For more information on tailoring this program for your organization’s events, contact Becky MacDicken at 717-783-2498 or bmacdicken@state.pa.us.

The Pennsylvania Office of Financial Education is a state government agency whose mission is to increase the availability and quality of financial education in Pennsylvania’s schools, communities and workplaces. To learn more about our office, visit our website at: www.moneysbestfriend.com.

This program has been approved for six (general) recertification credit hours toward PHR, SPHR and GPHR recertification through the HR Certification Institute. The use of this seal is not an endorsement by the HR Certification Institute of the quality of the program. It means that this program has met the HR Certification Institute’s criteria to be pre-approved for recertification credit.