These sessions have been approved for strategic Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI) credits.

SESSIONS

10 Things Your CEO Won't Tell You About HR But I Will—Jonathan A. Segal

We hear a lot about HR wanting a seat at the table. It is so obvious that HR should be there that you have to ask, why not? This session discusses common concerns about HR expressed by C-suite executives and how to win them over so you do not end up unfairly marginalized, to the detriment of your organization.

Employment Law Update—Lynn C. Outwater

What are the latest employment law developments in Pennsylvania? Lynn will help us understand the most current federal, state and regulatory developments that Pennsylvania employers need to be aware of to manage more effectively. Practical advice in applying the latest legal developments to the workplace will be discussed.

Federal Public Policy Update—Michael Aitken

In this election year, employment issues continue to dominate the legislative agenda. Laws to expand civil rights protections, increase "pay equity" and penalties for violations, enhance the power of unions and mandate paid leave will be discussed. Pension reform and other benefits-related bills will be discussed too.

Managing Leaves of Absences—Anne E. Zerbe

Just over one year ago, the FMLA was overhauled by regulations issued by the Department of Labor that took effect January 16, 2009. Learn how the final regulations have changed the playing field for employers one year later. In this session, you will discover who benefited from the changes, how the case law developments and opinion letters have impacted FMLA leave, how the more-recent enactment of the NDAA of 2010 has expanded military leave under the FMLA and what tools employers can use to manage the abuse or misuse of FMLA leave.

ADA and Religious Accommodations—Michael W. King

With the expansion of the definition of "disability" under the ADA Amendments Act, the concept of "reasonable accommodation" has likewise been expanded. Further, while religious accommodation cases are not frequent, they raise particularly thorny issues in our increasingly diverse and multicultural society. This session will focus on practical approaches to these difficult problems.

Pennsylvania Legislative Proposals and Effective Grassroots Advocacy—Jonathan A. Segal

This presentation will provide an overview of the more-salient employment bills pending in Pennsylvania. It will include an interactive discussion of the pros and cons of each bill not only in terms of its immediate impact but also in terms of its potential precedent. The importance of grassroots advocacy is stressed with recommendations to maximize effectiveness.

Hill Visits/Tour of Capitol Hill/Observe Legislative Session

HR professionals are strongly encouraged to track the progress of bills as they go through committee and potentially become legislation—especially those matters that affect employers and the workplace. Take advantage of this rare opportunity to visit the Harrisburg office of your state senator and/or representative. Our Hill Visit Committee will book an appointment for you if you indicate that you would like to visit.

We are also pleased to announce that our group will be given a special, private tour of the Capitol and a chance to see the Legislative Floor, if the Assembly is in session.
